4. (Unclassified - JGO) Received a call from Peter Abbruzzese, Administrative Assistant to Representative Wayne Hays (D., Ohio), who told me that a friend of Hays will be interviewed tomorrow morning by our Personnel office in Rosslyn, a [REDACTED] He said this young lady comes very well qualified and will be graduating in June from college with a very high average. [REDACTED] is also the niece of a member of Congress, not Hays, who Abbruzzese told me does not want to be identified. I thanked him for the call and told him he could be assured that [REDACTED] application would receive appropriate consideration, but that unfortunately our employment situation at this time is somewhat tight. 25X1 25X1

5. (Confidential - JGO) James Lowenstein and Richard Moose, Subcommittee on U.S. Security Agreements and Commitments Abroad staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, visited Headquarters today for briefings prior to their travel to Indochina starting next weekend. See [REDACTED] [REDACTED] DC/FE, Memorandum for the Record. 25X1 25X1

6. (Unclassified - GLC) On the basis of information provided by [REDACTED] Personnel, I advised Homer Krout, in the office of Representative Joel Broyhill (R., Va.), that the termination case Broyhill had talked to us about was under review by our Director of Personnel on the basis of an appeal by the employee. I told Krout that I had passed on to our people the Congressman's strong feelings about this case and told him I would keep them advised. 25X1

7. (Confidential - GLC) Colonel Charles Hammond, in the Legislative Liaison Office of DOD, called about the clearances of Lowenstein and Moose, Subcommittee on U.S. Security Agreements and Commitments Abroad staff, in connection with their upcoming trip to Southeast Asia. He asked if I would have our Security people coordinate with their Pentagon counterparts concerning travel restriction waivers. I passed this on to [REDACTED] Security. 25X1

8. (Internal Use Only - GLC) Senator Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. (R., Md.) spoke to the Advanced Intelligence Seminar class in one of the Appropriations Committee hearing rooms on the Hill. At this session I learned that Bill Miller (Legislative Assistant to former Senator John Sherman Cooper) is now Counsel for the Ad Hoc Committee on Congressional Reform. Mathias is co-chairman of this Committee.
